Singer/Songwriters for the Event

Sherrie' Austin

Multi-talented Australian Singer/Songwriter/Actress Sherrie' Austin was born for the stage. She has made records in Country and Pop Music, acted in Hollywood, written songs for Superstar artists, toured Internationally and even done Broadway. At 14 she opened for Johnny Cash in Australia, then starred on the hit TV show "Facts Of Life".

She went on to score record deals with both legendary label heads Jimmy Iovine in LA and Tim Dubois in Nashville. As an ACM nominated Country artist, she has had hit singles and #1 videos. Not only has she made her mark on Nashville as a successful country artist, but the diminutive brunette has also had her songs recorded by such country giants as George Straight, Tim McGraw and Blake Shelton. She brought things full circle by taking part in "Ring Of Fire", the Broadway musical celebrating the life of Johnny Cash. In recent years, she has partnered in her own innovative Artist

Development/ Label Services company, GoLong Entertainment, a Nashville based company that is helping young artists navigate the waters of the new Streaming and Social Media music environment through the timeless power of the song.

Michelle Pereira

Michelle Pereira (pronounced Purr-Era) stands as an entrancing vocalist and accomplished songwriter hailing from Mississauga, Ontario. Her captivating voice and emotionally charged compositions have garnered noteworthy comparisons to revered artists such as Sara Bareilles, ADELE, Susan Tedeschi, and Sara Evans.

Michelle's impressive credentials include a Bachelor's degree in vocal jazz and a Music Business certificate, both earned at Humber College. Her journey led her to refine her production and engineering skills at the prestigious Blackbird Studios in Nashville, where she collaborated with distinguished music engineering luminaries like John McBride (notable for his work with Martina McBride and Stevie Nicks) and Mark Rubel (credited with artists such as Rascal Flatts and Fall Out Boy).

Her artistry has left an indelible mark on Nashville's most esteemed venues, among them The Bluebird Cafe, The Listening Room, and The City Winery. Her rising prominence in the music industry is underscored by her sponsorship from the Nashville Songwriters Association International and the Song Suffragettes, facilitating her work visa with distinction.

Beyond her remarkable vocal and songwriting talents, Michelle shines as a songwriter for Songfinch, channeling her skills to craft personalized songs that resonate deeply with individuals, immortalizing their unique personal stories through the power of music.

Michelle's accolades are a testament to her dedication and artistry. Her triumph in The Bluebird Cafe Golden Pick contest, a FACTOR Artist Development grant from the Canadian Private radio broadcasters, and recognition from ASCAP's prestigious GPS (Guidance from publishers for songwriters) program collectively underscore her potential and readiness for success in the music sphere. Notably, her compositions have found a home in the repertoires of several independent artists, amassing a remarkable 1,000,000+ streams on Spotify combined.
